

THE WESLEYAN ALUMNAE

Published Quarterly by Wesleyan College,
Macon, Georgia

November, February, May, August

For the entire Alumnae Body of Wesleyan
Subscription Price, $1.00 per year

Vol. X.

No. 2

Entered as second-class matter, February 12, 1925, at the Post Office at Macon, Ga., under the act of March 3, 1879.

Wesleyan Alumnae

May, 1934

THE WESLEYAN ALUMNAE

Vol. X

MAY, 1934

No. 2

The W. R. Rogers, Jr. Scholarship

The W. R. Rogers Scholarship Fund for girls who could not otherwise go to Wesleyan!

How Rok Rogers would thrill to such use of his name!

A man he was, as modest as a maid should be, as true as a friend can be, as practical as a banker must be.

Wesleyan never knew a more loyal trustee, education a more faithful advocate, nor Christianity a more noble exemplar.

His cheery smile and gentle courage helped many troubled ones along life's way, both men and women, both old and young.

The things he did in this life speak for united effort on the part of all Wesleyan alumnae in the great opportunity hereby given them, to honor his memory in the way he would like best of all.

Together let us make this tribute so whole-hearted, so charged with love and power that the mere statement will bring instant results beyond our dreams.

Good and great as was Rok Rogers the scholarship must be worthy in proportion, quick in expression.

—Eugenia Dolly (Blount) Lamar,
Class of 1883.

Nominee For Alumnae Trustee

ANNABEL HORN, A.B. 1906

The nominee for alumnae trustee to succeed Annie (Bates) Haden, A.B. '88, who this year completes her three-year term as alumnae trustee, has followed with inspiring enthusiasm and remarkable success through the years the interests that she had as a school-girl at Wesleyan.

She majored in Greek and Latin at Wesleyan, and began teaching that subject immediately upon graduation. Her love for the classics has never changed.

PROFESSION

After being instructor in Greek and Latin in Columbia, Miss., and instructor in Latin and principal of Deshler School for Girls in Alabama, she went to Girls' High School in Atlanta, and has been for the past ten years Head of the Latin Department in that school, one of the largest in the South.

She was Southern chairman of the Vergil Bimillennium, co-author with Harry Fletcher Scott of the Scott-Horn Latin series of textbooks, member of the State Committee in charge of the Atlanta Journal Latin Tournament. It was she who arranged for the twelve medals now offered by the Italian government annually in that contest.

She has done research work in Roman Britain, in Provence, and has worked with Grant Showerman at the American Academy in Rome. She has written a number of articles for the Classical Journal.

COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY WORK

Besides her A.B. degree from Wesleyan, Annabel Horn holds the M.A. degree from the University of Chicago, also in the classics. She has studied at the University of California, at the University of Colorado, and has done graduate work at the American Academy in Rome.

OFFICES HELD

Annabel Horn is Director in Atlanta of the Drama League. She was president in 1932-33 of the Georgia Classical Association. As an officer on the National Board of the Wesleyan Alumnae Association, she has rendered valuable service in connection with Dormitory Day at the college and with the Historical Essay Contest this year. The idea of the Historical Essay Contest was hers; she drafted the rules, suggested ways of promoting the contest, threw herself wholeheartedly into every phase of the work. To her is due most of the praise for the success of this contest. Already she is working on plans for next year's contest.

ANNABEL HORN

DRAMATIC INTERESTS

Always interested in dramatics, Annabel Horn helped organize the first Dramatic Club at Wesleyan, and helped put on the first Senior Play. Since then she has worked with Gilmore Brown at the Little Theatre in Pasadena, California; has served as director of the Atlanta Drama League; and had charge of the first moving picture developed by a high school. This was "Descent to Avernus," a dramatization of Vergil, filmed by a national moving picture concern, and shown on regular circuit.

LITERARY INTERESTS

Annabel Horn won the Junior English medal at Wesleyan and was editor-in-chief of the Zig Zag, college annual, and of The Wesleyan, college literary magazine. She has written articles for The English Journal, The Classical Journal, The Drama Magazine, and The Atlanta Journal, besides textbooks.

ATHLETIC INTERESTS

At Wesleyan Annabel Horn was Senior Representative of the Athletic Club, and played on all the teams. She still keeps up her athletic interests, and has spent all her summers canoe-ing in the north woods of Michigan, Wisconsin, and Canada, in camping and walking trips, etc. The latter have taken her "hiking" with the Sierra Club of California, the Rocky Mountain Club of Colorado, and the Appalachian Club of Georgia and surrounding states. She has taken walking trips in England, Scotland, Wales, Italy, and the Hebrides. She is now an active member of the Georgia Appalachian Trail Club. She had charge of the survey of recreation for the City of Atlanta several years ago and was sent to study recreation in Chicago and St. Louis. Most of the suggestions of her committee are now an important part of the Atlanta recreation system, especially for golf and playgrounds.

"My present hobby," writes this seemingly tireless person, whose main occupation, that of head of a large department of a large high school, would be quite all that most of us could do, "is farming, and I am looking forward to settling down on my mountain farm on Nantala River near Blairsville in my old age. I cannot think of a thing I have done that would justify my being made a trustee of Wesleyan!"

The nominating committee, however, thought of a great many things that did, don't you?

IF YOU ARE IN FAVOR OF ANNABEL HORN AS ALUMNAE TRUSTEE, PLEASE RETURN THIS SLIP (WITH YOUR LOYALTY FUND CONTRIBUTION, UNLESS YOU HAVE ALREADY CONTRIBUTED) TO THE WESLEYAN ALUMNAE OFFICE:

Please count my vote for Annabel Horn as Alumnae Trustee.

Signed:

Married Name _____

Address _____

Maiden Name _____ Class _____

TO ALL WHOSE CLASSES HOLD REUNIONS THIS YEAR!

Come back for Commencement if you POSSIBLY can. This is a very "special" year—the Centennial Forecast. We are beginning actual plans for Wesleyan's hundredth birthday in 1936!

These classes are invited to be our special guests for Commencement:

1885, 1886, 1887, 1888
1904, 1905, 1906, 1907
1923, 1924, 1925, 1926

The very FIRST Reunion Banquet is to be held Friday night, May 25th, at Rivoli, at 8:00 P. M. Be sure to get here in time for that.

At the Banquet, historical material, not only about the college, but on any subject of historical interest, will be presented to the Wesleyan Collection. Many treasures have already been received, and will be presented at that time.

Have you something of historical interest, old catalogs, programs, costumes (we want costumes of all the years since Wesleyan's founding!) or other material reminiscent of long-ago Wesleyan, Georgia, or the South? Won't you come to Commencement yourself and present it?

COMMENCEMENT CALENDAR

MAY 25 THROUGH 28

Friday, May 25:

- 8:00 P. M. Alumnae Banquet, Faculty Room, Wesleyan College, Rivoli. (50 cents).
Reunion class skits, reminiscences.
Presentation of relics and souvenirs of old Wesleyan Days.

Saturday, May 26:

- 10:00 A. M. Annual Meeting of the National Alumnae Association, Wesleyan Conservatory Chapel, College Street, Alleen (Poer) Hinton, president, in charge
Memorial Service.
Reports of Wesleyan Clubs.
Plans for Wesleyan Centennial, 1936.
Induction of Class of 1934.
- 5:00 P. M. Alumnae Garden Party, Wesleyan College campus, Rivoli.
- 8:30 P. M. Musical Soiree and Graduation Exercises of Wesleyan Conservatory, chapel of Wesleyan Conservatory.

Sunday, May 27:

- 8:30 A. M. Alumnae Morning Watch, Wesleyan parlors, led by member of Reunion class.
- 11:30 A. M. Baccalaureate Sermon in Gymnasium, Rivoli, by Bishop Hoyt M. Dobbs of Shreveport, Louisiana.
- 8:30 P. M. Sacred Concert, Wesleyan Conservatory chapel.

Monday, May 28:

- 11:00 A. M. Literary Address, Wesleyan College gymnasium, by the Rev. Edward McLellan, Fraternal Delegate from English Methodism to the General Conference.
Conferring of Degrees, College of Liberal Arts.
Address to the Graduates—President Dice Robins Anderson.